

You are cordially invited to the Franklin Performing Arts Company Annual Golf Tournament

New England Country Club
180 Paine Street
Bellingham, Massachusetts

Friends,

The Franklin Performing Arts Company will host its Annual Golf Tournament at New England Country Club in Bellingham, MA on Monday June 8th. We invite golfers and their families to join us for this unique event that offers a day on the course, an awards ceremony, dinner, raffle and entertainment.

New England Country Club is an 18 hole championship golf course located in Bellingham, Massachusetts. The scenic New England Country Club is one of the best conditioned public courses in the area. This enjoyable 18 hole championship golf course, designed by Hale Irwin, has the look and feel of a private golf course. The rolling hills, tree lined fairways, and multiple tee boxes give each hole a unique character and provide a fair challenge for all ability levels. Breathtaking New England scenery can be viewed from the dining room, tent facility and throughout the golf course.

Nestled in the metrowest region of Massachusetts, the Franklin Performing Arts Company is a not-for-profit institution committed to live performance with a focus on youth development. FPAC supports educational arts experiences, quality entertainment and outstanding performance opportunities for professional artists amateur performers and students of the arts, as well as performing arts production and presentation programming. In its home at THE BLACK BOX, FPAC strives to further enhance the cultural life in our region and drive a robust and dynamic downtown center. Celebrate and support the power of the arts to enrich, educate and inspire.
