Hour lessons: $650

Beginner/ Intermediate Voice

Tuesdays 3:00 pm-4:00 pm

(ages 8-12, no experience necessary, unchanged voices)

Designed for young singers looking to gain experience and basic technique. Classes focus on fundamentals of breathing, vowel placement, sight-reading and ear training. A wide range of repertoire will be studied with emphasis on contemporary and musical theater genres. This class is ideal for students entering the FSPA voice program in the fall.

Tuition $225

Teen Voice

Tuesdays 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

(ages 12-18, no experience necessary)

Teen Voice is designed for the beginning to intermediate singer. Emphasis is placed on building confidence along with a healthy vocal technique. Repertoire includes musical theater and popular contemporary genres.

Tuition $225

Song Writing

Mondays 3:00 pm-4:00 pm

(ages 12-18, no experience necessary)

This class will focus on the process of songwriting by exploring each of its elements in depth: lyrics, melody, harmony, rhythm, and the ways they create emotional impact. Part of each class will be devoted to listening to and discussing songs from a variety of different genres and artists. Students will be encouraged to bring in material, whether it be a song they love, a poem that speaks to them, or something they have written or are in the process of writing that they would like to workshop.

Tuition $225

Music Theory for Beginners

Mondays 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

(ages 12 & up, no experience necessary)

Topics include melody, rhythm, harmony, form, pitch, scales, consonance, dissonance and basic orchestration. Music Theory is very helpful to all private music students!

Tuition $225

Small Instrumental Ensembles

Times and days based on ensemble assignments

(ages 7 & up, by evaluation/teacher recommendation)

Piano is often a lonely undertaking, but there is a great deal of repertoire written for two people to play together! Students will be assigned a partner with whom to learn a piece and will have the opportunity to play in every class. Students will be coached on how to tackle the repertoire and how to develop the skills to work on music collaboratively. (8 weeks)
